COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER | SUMMER 2022

Inside this Issue

Summer Camps • Concerts & Events • New Bakery-Cafe

Greetings from Christine Conkin, Parish Priest

Backyard barbeques. Long awaited family visits. Taking that trip you planned 2 years ago. Catching up with friends. Rest and recreation. These are some of the simple hopes we have for this summer. We hope for renewed connections, renewed life and renewed spirits. We hope for peace. Here at St.

George's, we hope you find the connection and reconnection you need this summer. We hope the various events and activities described in this newsletter help renew community connections as we continue to journey in hope.

Worship Services

All are welcome! Join us on Sundays at 8am for quiet, traditional, reflective service and at 10am for a family-oriented service with music. We continue to offer online access to the 10am service via Zoom.

Visit: www.stgeorgecadborobay.ca/worship for up to date information.

Wonderful Wednesdays: Faith Seeking Understanding

Join Bishop Anna Greenwood-Lee and Rev. Christine Conkin on June 8th at 7pm in the Church for discussions and historical overview of various ways of understanding Jesus, known as "atonement theology," and to explore emerging contemporary understandings. More info about this monthly series is on our website.

Amazing Journey Day Camp

Get ready for a fun, action-packed Wilderness Escape Journey from July 4-8th, 9am-12 noon at St. George's. A morning program for children from Preschool to Grade 5, this camp is designed to bring God's Word to life and help campers learn how God guides and provides. We are planning an amazing and exciting week! We'll be singing and dancing, making crafts, playing games, and listening to Bible stories as we take a journey through the wilderness to the Promised Land. Children with special needs welcome. We are also looking for middle and high school students to volunteer as leaders. Registration is in the Events section of our website: www.stgeorgecadborobay.ca

Irish Dance Summer Camp

August 29 – September 1, at St. George's Hall Building

Join O'Brien School of Irish Dance for the last week of summer! Old friends, new friends, and friends we haven't met yet - join us for a week of movement, music, and fun! Dust off those shoes if you've danced before, but not to worry because no experience is necessary! Register soon as prices will increase after June 15.

Beginner - Novice Dancers: 9 - 11:30 $120 (before June 15)

Advanced Dancers 12:30 - 4:30 $190 (before June 15)

To register email: obrienirishdance@hotmail.com

Local Area Plan - Planned Community Workshop

Saanich staff are currently exploring possibilities for expanding the Cadboro Bay Village Centre to include more opportunities for purpose-built rentals and forms of housing affordable to a broader range of incomes. They plan to hold an in-person community workshop on Saturday, June 11th, and would like you to join them. Please save the date, and check www.saanich.ca for updates on time and location of event.

Cadboro Bay Festival

On August 7th from 11am to 3pm, enjoy an afternoon at the picturesque Gyro Park, with a variety of hands-on activities, bouncy castles, information displays, live music, arts and craft stations and food and fun for the entire family! Watch world-class sand sculptors create giant works of art using just sand, water and a whole lot of creativity.

A New Business in the Village

Welcome to the Cadboro Bay community! Cat's Coffee & Cakes will be opening soon in the former Jusu Bar location. The owner, Catherine Yang has lived in the community for 6 years.

CONNECTING WITH US

Peace Pole Installation

On Sunday, May 29, we officially installed our Peace Pole close to the woodland path. The Pole was graciously donated by a parishioner. Peace Poles are a way to bring communities together to “inspire, awaken, and uplift the human consciousness the world over.” They are recognized as a prominent international symbol to peace. More info can be found at www.worldpeace.org/peacepoleproject
