Collect of the Day

Presider O God of hosts,

All In your love your people find healing.
Grant that the pains of our journey
may not obscure the presence of Christ among us,
so that we may always give thanks for your healing power
as we travel on the way.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading: Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 66:1-12

Reader Be joyful in God, all you lands *

All be joyful, all the earth.

sing the glory of the divine name; *

sing the glory of God's praise.

Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds! *

Because of your great strength your enemies cringe
before you.

All the earth bows down before you, *
sings to you, sings out your name."

Come now and see the works of God, *
how wonderful you are, O God, in your doing toward all people.

You turned the sea into dry land,
so that they went through the water on foot, *
and there we rejoiced in you.

In your might you rule for ever;
your eyes keep watch over the nations; *
let no rebel rise up against you.

Bless our God, you peoples; *
make the voice of God's praise to be heard;
who holds our souls in life, *
and will not allow our feet to slip.

For you, O God, have proved us; *
you have tried us just as silver is tried.

You brought us into the snare; *
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.

You let enemies ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water; *
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David - that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful - for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Gradual Hymn: # 259 For The Fruit Of All Creation

The Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Reader The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke.

All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."
