Opening Hymn: #567 Eternal Father, Strong To Save

Greeting

Presider Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Holy God,

All holy and mighty,
holy immortal one,
have mercy upon us.

Presider We meet in the presence of God.

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice, and peace.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.
We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

Presider Holy God,
All holy and mighty,
holy immortal one,
have mercy upon us

ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

Presider Jesus said, 'There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.' Today we give thanks for those who have, in their military service, sacrificed their lives on this earth to benefit 'friends,' known and unknown. We hold the names and stories of our family and friends who gave their lives in the service of freedom and peace in this Book of Service, honourably displayed in our Lady Chapel.

All We give thanks for their courage and their sacrifice.

Presider We particularly remember:

The names in The Book of Service are read aloud.

Presider The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. They are at peace. I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, "From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Even so says the Spirit, for they rest from their labours."

The Book of Service is placed in The Lady Chapel.

The Last Post

Wreath is processed to its place of honour, followed by a time of silence.

Reveille

Presider Unto you, O God, be praise and thanksgiving for all those who have been faithful unto death; into your merciful keeping we commend their souls, beseeching you to grant that for all of us for whom they died, their love and devotion may bear fruit in more abundant love for others, through the One who has destroyed death, Jesus Christ, our Saviour.

All Amen.

Presider "They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun, and in the morning. We will remember them."

All We will remember them.

Duet: Pie Jesu

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading: Haggai 1:15b-2:9

In the second year of King Darius, in the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the Lord came by the prophet Haggai, saying: Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, and say, Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Is it not in your sight as nothing? Yet now take courage, O Zerubbabel, says the Lord; take courage, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; take courage, all you people of the land, says the Lord; work, for I am with you, says the Lord of hosts, according to the promise that I made you when you came out of Egypt. My spirit abides among you; do not fear. For thus says the Lord of hosts: Once again, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land; and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasure of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with splendour, says the Lord of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the Lord of hosts. The latter splendour of this house shall be greater than the former, says the Lord of hosts; and in this place I will give prosperity, says the Lord of hosts.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145:1-5, 17-21

Presider I will exalt you, O God my King, *

All and bless your Name for ever and ever.

Every day will I bless you * and praise your name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; *
there is no end to your greatness

One generation shall praise your works to another * and shall declare your power.

I will ponder the glorious splendour of your majesty * and all your marvellous works.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways *
and loving in all his works.

The Lord is near to those who call upon him, *
to all who call upon him faithfully.

He fulfils the desire of those who fear him*
he hears their cry and helps them.

The Lord preserves all those who love him,* but he destroys all the wicked.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord*
let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Gradual Hymn: #572 Let There Be Light (vs 1-4)

The Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

Reader The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.
Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke.
All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and asked him a question, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her." Jesus said to them, "Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive."

Reader The Gospel of Christ.

The Peace

Offertory Hymn: #1 Vow To Thee My Country

I vow to thee, my country
All earthly things above
Entire and whole and perfect
The service of my love

The love that asks no questions
The love that stands the test
That lays upon the altar
The dearest and the best

The love that never falters
The love that pays the price
The love that makes undaunted
The final sacrifice

And there's another country
I've heard of long ago
Most dear to them that love her
Most great to them that know

We may not count her armies
We may not see her King
Her fortress is a faithful heart
Her pride is suffering

And soul by soul and silently
Her shining bounds increase
And her ways are ways of gentleness
And all her paths are peace

Communion Music: Prayer Of Peace

Put Peace Into Each Other's Hands (Tune: St. Columba)

Put peace into each other's hand
and like a treasure hold it;
protect it like a candle flame,
with tenderness enfold it.

Put peace into each other's hand
with loving expectation;
be gentle in your words and ways,
in touch with God's creation.

Put peace into each other's hand
like bread we break for sharing;
look people warmly in the eye:
Our life is meant for caring.

Give thanks for strong yet tender hands,
held out in trust and blessing.
Where words fall short,
let hands speak out,
the heights of love expressing.

Put peace into each other's hand
he is love's deepest measure; in love make peace, give peace a chance and share it like a treasure;
and share it like a treasure.

Prayer after Communion:

Presider God of love,
may the death and resurrection of Christ,
which we celebrate in this eucharist,
bring us, with the faithful departed,
into the peace of your eternal home.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ,
our hope and our salvation.

All Amen.

Presider Glory to God,
All whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

WE ARE SENT INTO THE WORLD

Blessing

Presider May Christ who makes saints of sinners, who has transformed those we remember today, raise and strengthen you that you may transform the world; and the blessing of God: Creating, Redeeming, and Sustaining, be upon you and remain with you ever more.
Amen.

Recessional Hymn: #Let There Be Peace On Earth

Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me
Let There Be Peace on Earth
The peace that was meant to be

With God as our Creator Family all are we Let us walk with each other
In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me
Let this be the moment now.

With every step I take Let this be my solemn vow
To take each moment and live
Each moment in peace eternally
Let there be peace on earth
And let it begin with me

Dismissal
